THE 6TH ANNUAL DOWNTOWN BURBANK CAR CLASSIC

Saturday, August 5, 2017 • 3:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

The 6th Downtown Burbank Car Classic will roll into Downtown Burbank with celebrity, custom, and exotic vehicles from the Petersen Automotive Museum, the Television Motion Picture Car Club, Warner Bros. Studio Tour Hollywood, Universal Studios Hollywood, and more.

In addition, there will be restored cars and hot rods spanning four blocks as well as DJs spinning tunes, chalk artists, automotive-related vendors, and more than 400 shops and restaurants ready to explore at this outdoor street festival.

The Downtown Burbank Car Classic is free and open to the public.

LIBRARY EVENTS

AUTHOR VISIT WITH

CORY DOCTOROW

Buena Vista Branch Library

(300 N. Buena Vista St.)

Thursday, August 10 • 7:00 p.m.

Burbank Public Library is thrilled to be welcoming the sensational Cory Doctorow to discuss his latest novel WALKAWAY. Part Sci-Fi Thriller, part polemic from activist blogger, this novel explores the momentous changes coming over the next hundred years. It is an epic tale of revolution, love, war, and the end of death.

Cory is a co-editor of the popular weblog BoingBoing (boingboing.net), which receives over three million visitors a month, and a columnist for The Guardian, Publishers Weekly, and Locus. His science fiction has won numerous awards, and his YA novel LITTLE BROTHER spent seven weeks on The New York Times bestseller list.

"Thrilling and unexpected....A truly visionary techno-thriller that not only depicts how we might live tomorrow, but asks why we don't already." - Kirkus (starred review)

Books will be available for purchase and signing.
